Echo Will Be Out Early Next Week

The 1924 Colonial Echo, after many long weeks of waiting on the part of the student body, will make its appearance at the beginning of next week, bigger, brighter and more representative than ever before.

The first big change that the reader will notice will be the new type of cover, which is of semi-hard leather with a delicate spider-web finish. The old and elaborate seal has given place to a simple and more attractive design which includes the name and an impression of the college mace.

The new Echo contains over three hundred pages, an increase of more than seventy-five over last year's annual. Three new books or departments have been added, making eight in all, and each book is introduced by a full page three-color cut of the most attractive design. One of the main features is the opening section of eight pages. The volume is dedicated to Mrs. George Preston Blow, of Yorktown, who has done a great service to William and Mary in providing for the erection of the new memorial gymnasium to her late husband.

Another improvement of the 1924 Echo is the color finish used in the senior section, which gives it a special distinction. The engraving in the campus section is done on rough pebbled paper in an unusually attractive manner, while all the college scenes are done in panels. A special section is also devoted to sponsors for college publications and major sports, the cuts all being full page.

The regular departments are all larger than in any previous volume, much space being devoted to student activities, classes, athletics and organizations such as social and honor-

Kempy Gives Audience Plenty Of Laughs

"Kempy," a farce comedy by J. C. Nugent and Elliott Nugent, which was presented by the Class in Drama, under the direction of Assistant Professor Irving H. White, at Cameron Hall Monday evening, went across with marked success. The performance was well attended, and the proceeds, the amount of which is not yet known, will go toward the baseball equipment fund.

It would be difficult to state which of the cast did the best work. Each

W.-M. Triumphs Over R.-M. By 5-1 Score

The superior effectiveness of Slim Richmond and the timely hitting of the entire Indian team brought William and Mary a 5 to 1 triumph over their time-honored rivals, Randolph-Macon, last Friday on Cary field.

Due to a rejuvenated outfield and to a greatly strengthened infield the Indians were able to make their last appearance in grand style; this fact together with that of their flashy fielding and heavy hitting brought Coach Tasker's men a brilliant finish to a slow and unexciting season.

Richmond proved himself to be amply worthy of the mound selection, completely baffling the Yellow Jackets with his offerings. Six visiting batsmen fanned the air before the Indian veteran's deliveries, while his team-mates knocked the horsehide all over the field. Chalkley

President Says A Final Word About The Past Year's Work

To Students, Alumni and Friends of the College of William and Mary:

Through the courtesy of the editor of the Flat Hat, I am permitted to address this word of greeting to you in this, the last issue for the session of 1923-24.

The college is closing a remarkable session. Its enrollment has gone to 904. Two new buildings, viz: the men's dormitory and the Blow gymnasium, contract price amounting to $360,000 for the two, will be ready for use in the fall of 1924. The graduating class this year numbers, including the graduates of last September, 110. The work in the various departments of the college has been unusually good. I feel that the student body and the alumni are to be congratulated upon the progress of the institution. Its success and growth is due to your loyal co-operation.

On account of increased dormitory facilities for next year we shall be able to accommodate more students, and I shall be very grateful if after reading this notice, you will write any prospective student that ought to come to William and Mary. It would be a most gracious act if you would speak to any who, in your judgment, would be interested in the college.

When all is said and done, the growth and development of a college depends upon its alumni, friends and students. I believe that with your continued co-operation the college is going to become an even greater factor for usefulness to the State.

In the name of the Board of Visitors and the Faculty, I extend to you a cordial invitation to be present at the finals June 8th-11th, inclusive. The graduates will greatly appreciate your presence. Let us join hands in promoting the progress of our dear alma mater.

Sincerely yours,

J. A. C. CHANDLER,
President.

Foster Barnes To Make Victor Records

The Victor Talking Machine Company, of Camden, N. J., has engaged the services of J. Foster Barnes, baritone concert singer of Greensboro, N. C., to make records for Victor phonographs, according to news dispatches from Greensboro.

Barnes will be remembered by his appearance here in concert a few weeks ago, when he appeared under the auspices of the Williamsburg branch of the American Association of University Women. He is an alumnus of William and Mary, and while in college, sang in the local churches.
Since leaving here Mr. Barnes has studied extensively, and has won an enviable reputation as a concert artist.

Mr. Barnes' first six records will probably be gospel hymns, according to the Greensboro Daily News. In his recent try-out in Camden, he sang one hymn, "I Would Be Like Jesus," and two negro spirituals, "Were You There When They Crucified My Lord?"
and "Little David," Play On Your Harp," both of which songs will be remembered as numbers on his program here.

The experience of trying-out was one of the most interesting experiences of his life, Mr. Barnes told the Daily News reporter. One of the songs he sang in the trial was almost immediately sung back at him, and for the first time in his life he heard himself singing. He related in detail the process by which the records are made and how they are directed.

The real making of the records will take place as soon as Mr. Barnes can go back to Camden, which will be within a few days, says the Daily News.

Rough Ashler Club Elects '25 Officers

Officers for the session of 1924-25 were elected by the Rough Ashler Club at its final meeting of the year held last week. In addition to the lec-tion of officers, other matters of business were transacted, and plans discussed for the work of the club next year.

The officers elected were as follows: President, P. P. Peebles; vice-president, G. B. Burnside; secretary, C. T. Roach; treasurer, W. K. Lane;
tiler, T. B. Howard.

CINDER-DIAMOND

For the first time since the season of 1920-'21, William and Mary has the distinction of having a four letter man in athletics. John Todd, by making his track letter for this season, has brought upon himself this rare honor, which few athletes ever enjoy. Last year Todd made his monogram in three sports, football, basketball and baseball, but failed to come through in track. The last William and Mary man to hold this honor was "Flicky" Harwood, who made four letters during the season of '20-'21.

* * * *

The two Todd brothers between them this year have won seven monograms. Not so bad.

* * * *

The field and track meet held in Norfolk should be made a regular event on the Indian track schedule next year. Judging from the number of contestants, this event is going to be the biggest track attraction in the State in a few more years.

* * * *

Richmond, pitching his last regular collegiate game, turned in a pretty victory against Randolph-Macon last week. With this lanky twirler in the box in one of the alumni day games with Richmond University, the score should be slightly different from that of the last encounter with the Spiders.

* * * *

Next year, if predictions follow out, Coach Jones is going to have one of the best track teams in the history of William and Mary athletics. Only two men, Hancock and Moss, will be lost to the team, while three sure point winners, Edgar, Davis, and Groves, will be eligible. With a few prep school runners coming in as freshmen next year, it should be an exceedingly well balanced team.

* * * *

The action of the men's student body, in voting to award members of the tennis team with standard size monogram with two T's was a wise move and another step forward in athletics. The time has not yet come when tennis should be a full major sport at William and Mary, but the monogram at least should be of a standard size, so that it can be identified.

* * * *

The other vote of the men, urging that William and Mary withdraw from Association of Colleges in South-Atlantic States, was a wise one. This withdrawal would greatly aid the teams of the College, and so far as we can see, would in no material way lower the scholastic standing of athletics. The main purpose of this Association is to kill "tramp athletes," but this brand of athlete is extremely scarce in the South-Atlantic States, especially among the colleges, where no big inducements are offered.

In the recent races at Cambridge between Harvard, Pennsylvania, and M. I. T., the Pennsylvania crews made a clean sweep in all three events, winning the University race by four and a half lengths. Columbia was scheduled to row in the races, but cancelled last week because of unfavorable weather.

To Meet Richmond Twice On June 10

Final arrangements for the commencement series of baseball games between the Indians and the University of Richmond team have been completed, and according to the arrangement as announced by Professor Hodges, two games will be played on Alumni Day, June 10.

The first game will be played here on Cary Field at 10:30 Tuesday morning, and immediately after this game the teams will leave for Richmond, and will play the second game that afternoon on Stadium field.

Due to the fact that the track teams would have to remain in training over so long a period, and because several of the Indian harriers will have left for the summer school in France, the track meet which had previously been arranged has been cancelled and replaced by the additional baseball game.

It is expected that the Indian team will make a much better showing in these games than in the previous encounters. The infield combination which completed the last few games of the season seemed to be considerably stronger than that which faced the Spiders in the other two games, while considerable improvement has been noted in the hitting ability of the entire team.

Hooff to Captain 1925 Track Team

Allison Hooff, of Manassas, Va., was chosen captain of the track team for next year. Hooff, a member of this year's sophomore class, has been the fastest sprinter on the Indian squad for the last two seasons. In high point scorings, he led the track team for the past season with a total of 23 points. This speed king holds one college record and has tied another. In the 100-yard dash, he has tied the college record of 10 1-5, while in the 220-yard dash he holds the local record with 23 seconds flat. He is a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Those receiving monograms for the past season were:

Captain Hancock, Winder, Hooff, Moss, Sheild, Irwin, Durham, Charles, J. Todd, L. Todd, Smith, Moncure, Matsu, Taylor, Garnett, manager.

Go To Norfolk

Last Saturday ten William and Mary trackmen journeyed to Norfolk on their own hook and captured the Norfolk police-fire field day meet. The men brought back three silver cups and sixteen medals. Those on the trip were Moss, Sheild, Winder, Hancock, Durham, Smith, Edgar, Wells, Charles and Lash. The team walked away with high point honors, scoring 34, while their closest rival held 23. They were awarded one cup as high point team, the other two being copped as the result of the Indians winning both the collegiate mile relay and the open mile relay. The same team ran both relays, being composed of Sheild, Moss, Winder and Hancock, running in order named.

Those events in which members of the team placed are:

"SCRAP" CHANDLER
Captain of Baseball

440-yard dash—Won by Hancock, Sheild, third. Time 54 flat.

880—Wells, second; Winder, third. Time 2:9 2-5.

Pole vault—Won by Durham, height, 10 feet 6 inches.

High jump—Edgar, second, height 5 feet 9 inches.

Broad jump—Charles, third; distance 19 feet 11 1-4 inches.

Discus—Won by Smith, distance 109 feet 7 inches.

Collegiate one-mile relay—Won by William and Mary. Time 3:43.

Mile relay (open)—Won by William and Mary. Time 3:41 2-5.

Chalkley Elected '25 Baseball Pilot

At a meeting of the baseball men Monday night, Jack Chalkley, of Norfolk, Va., was elected captain of next year's nine. Chalkley has played three years on the baseball team, holding down the position behind the plate. So far as defensive work is concerned, Chalkley hasn't an equal in the State, at least in collegiate circles, when it comes to handling the catcher's job. He has also played three years on the football team, and was manager of the basketball team for the past season. He is a member of the Theta Delta Chi fraternity.

Fourteen monograms were awarded to baseball men for the past season, including Manager Kennard. Those receiving letters were:

Captain Chandler, Hicks, Chalkley, Richmond, J. Todd, Saffelle, Denton, J. Moss, Parsons, Westbrook, Delk, Elmore, Wesson, Kennard, manager.

Exams at V. M. I. extend over a period of three weeks.

Commencement Play To Be Good Number

Anatole France's rewriting of the medieval play, "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife," is the Dramatic Club's offering for the annual commencement play presented in honor of visiting alumni and guests, in Cameron Hall, June 10, at 8 p. m.

The play is under the general direction of Dr. Walter A. Montgomery, who is being assisted by Misses Cary and Coles, who are supervising the costuming and scenery.

The part of the long-suffering husband, around whom most of the action centers, is played by George W. Reilly, while Thomas P. Chapman is cast in the role of the husband's assistant, the astute lawyer. The skillful physician, whose services are requisitioned in the restoration of the wife's speech, is portrayed by Thatcher H. Mawson, and the wife herself, whose tongue is loosed, is represented by Miss Virginia Ayers. There are a half dozen other minor characters, whose parts are taken by some new and old material, notable among them being Butler Daughtry, who assumes the role of the blind fiddler. Daughtry is also training well in some of the diverting songs to be offered.

Stage management and direction is in charge of Stanley Gay, George Reilly and T. P. Chapman.

Lit. Soc. Finals Scheduled June 9

Everything is in readiness for the annual inter-society contests between the Phoenix and Philomathean literary societies, which will be held in the college chapel on Monday night, June 9.

The subject for debate this year will be: "Resolved, That the United States Should Grant the Philippine Islands Their Independence Immediately."

The Philomathean representatives, Robert Darden and George W. Reilly, will uphold the affirmative while David C. George and William Hammock will defend the negative side of the question for the Phoenixians.

J. E. Tribble, of the Philomathean, and Joe Merrill, of the Phoenix, will represent their societies in the declamation contest. J. O. Strickler will be the orator for the Phoenix, while his opponent from the Philomathean society has not been chosen.

KEMPY GIVES AUDIENCE PLENTY OF LAUGHS

player was happily cast, and each did his work so well that a casual observer is not able to hand out any individual laurels, yet from a standpoint of experience, with the consequent shade of advantage in stage presence, Wynne as "Dad" Bence and Charlie Pollard as "Kempy" James may be considered by some as the stars of the piece. Ma Bence, with her oft-returning inclination to faint, played by Miss Josephine Barney, was amusing to the nth degree, while the bold attempts of Miss Mary Nash Tatem as Ruth Bence to "vamp" her sister's quasi-husband, were the source of many good laughs for the audience.

The work of Miss Mildred Vaiden, as Kate Bence, in portraying the overzealousness of an aesthetically ambitious young person, was uncommonly good. Miss Vaiden displayed remarkable power in handling her part, and her characterization of a type quite common among the new-rich classes, was exceptionally meritorious. The role of "Duke" Merrill, a worldly young "dandy," was well taken by William Morrow, and Carter Adams and Miss Anne Townsend as Ben Wade and his wife, Jane, are worthy of mention.

Much credit is due Mr. White for the success of the presentation, and the work of Miss Gertrude Cary, assistant professor of Fine Arts, in designing the costumes and scenery was creditable. Messrs. George Reilly and T. P. Chapman were in charge of stage management.

The initials of a friend

You will find these letters on many tools by which electricity works. They are on great generators used by electric light and power companies; and on lamps that light millions of homes.

They are on big motors that pull railway trains; and on tiny motors that make hard housework easy.

By such tools electricity dispels the dark and lifts heavy burdens from human shoulders. Hence the letters G-E are more than a trademark. They are an emblem of service—the initials of a friend.

V.-M. TRIUMPHS OVER R.-M. BY 5-1 SCORE

brought the hitting affair to a climax when he connected with a Jacket offering for a circuit clout into deep right field in the fourth inning.

The Indians started their scoring machine to work in the second inning when Wesson drove out a triple and scored later on a neatly placed bunt by Moss. Again in the third Moss drew a pass, advanced to third by stellar base running and scored on a drive by Todd.

In the fourth inning the Randolph-Macon defense collapsed and the Indians unloosed a drive that fairly swept the visitors off their feet. A pair of doubles by Denton and Saffelle and Chalkley's home-run were the bright lights of the stanza.

Much credit is due Caffey, the Randolph-Macon hurler, for more than once when the bases were filled with William and Mary runners he pitched himself out of the pinch, displaying a masterful brand of ball.

The noteworthy feature of the game was the faultless passing of the Indian nine. The infielders, led by the brilliant Hicks, distinguished themselves by their clean pickups, while Delk, Todd and Saffelle covered themselves with glory by their spectacular catches in the field.

Adios

I've tried to find a fitting rhyme with which to say good-bye,
But nothing I have found as yet begins to satisfy.

It's hard on us to have to leave, we love the old town so,
The campus green, old Bruton church, the Palace picture show.

To all of us they hold a charm of many a happy time,
From football games to final hops and pleasure trips sublime.
The Eastern State, the Palace Green, Old Brafferton and such,
It's hard to give them up, you know we love them all so much.

No more we'll tread the hallowed paths of many years ago,
And that is why to most of us it is so hard to go.
But I must stop—I've said too much.
I can't say any more,
So, good-bye, school; we love you lots.

Activities Union A New Organization

Representatives of the various student activities met in the office of Professor Hodges Tuesday evening, and organized what will perhaps be known as the Activities Union, membership in which organization will consist of the editors and business managers of the several publications, presidents and treasurers of other activities and organizations, and the presidents and secretary-treasurers of the men's and women's student government organizations. All of the above mentioned officers will be ex-officio members of the Union.

The purposes of the skeleton organization as it now stands will be, roughly, to bring together the executive heads of the various activities into a Union or what may be called a central committee, which Union of Committee will act as an advisory body, promoting co-operation and co-ordination between the several activities involved, and to discuss ways and means for the advancement of the activities, financially and otherwise.

The officers of the new organization will be a president, a secretary, and a faculty director. Larry Green, editor-elect of the '25 Colonial Echo, was chosen president; Miss Tommie Bland, president of the Women's Student Government organization, secretary, and Professor W. T. Hodges was selected by the body as its faculty director.

Meetings of the newly formed Union will be held at regular intervals during the college year, and matters pertaining to the welfare of the activities holding membership will be discussed, along with topics pertaining to the welfare of the college as a whole.

New History Of Va. Has Reached Library

The History of Virginia in three volumes, of which Dr. R. L. Morton, professor of history here, is co-author, with Dr. Lyon G. Tyler and Dr. Philip Alexander Bruce, is off the press, and the library has recently received a set of the first edition.

The first volume of the series, written by Dr. Bruce, who is also editor-in-chief of the series, deals with the Colonial period from 1607 to 1763. Volume II, is by Dr. Lyon G. Tyler, president-emeritus of the College of William and Mary, and covers the period from 1763 to 1861, known as the Federal period.

The third volume, entitled "Virginia Since 1861," was written by Dr. Morton. This series is the only complete history of Virginia that has been written, and will be of inestimable value to students of history.

ary fraternities, sororities and clubs of which there seems to be an abundance this year. The sectional cuts are very numerous, the drawings having all been done by students on the art staff. Some of these are especially clever and their originality adds a great deal to the appearance of the book.

The campus scenes and those of historical interest about the peninsula are all new and will form a valuable album for anyone. Each department has received the greatest consideration by the staff and the entire book shows excellent workmanship. In fact, this year's Colonial Echo is without question the best ever.

MONDAY, JUNE 2.

"No Mother To Guide Her."

TUESDAY, JUNE 3.

Hope Hampton in "Does It Pay?"

Does it pay—to drink the wine of folly, to tread the primrose path, to break the marriage vows, to forget self for the false lure of the siren's song? A startling story of a woman's wiles and a man's folly.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 4.

Max Linder in "The Three Must-Get-Theirs."

183 laughs for one ticket. The supreme burlesque. More laughs for less money than you ever had. A dashing, smashing "take off" on the Three Musketeers with Max Linder as Dart-in-Again, and Bull Montana as the Duke of Rich-Lou.

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY,
JUNE 5 AND 6.

John Barrymore in "Sherlock Holmes."

For the first time in his black career of crime, Professor Moriarty meets an adversary to be feared. The man who terrorized all England, the archfiend who know no fear and respected no law at last saw his empire of lawlessness fading. A silent figure in a Baker Street study threatened to wipe the breed of Moriarty from the earth. The most fascinating character in the entire realm of fiction comes finally from the pages of Conan Doyle's world-famous stories to thrill you and delight you. John Barrymore brings to the screen the baffling, suave, superb Sherlock Holmes in a character portrayal that will linger forever in your memory as the most brilliant piece of dramatic acting in motion pictures.

SATURDAY, JUNE 7.

William Farnum in "The Gun-fighter."

For 17 years the Benchleys and Camps continued their feudal carnage—with terrible loss and suffering to each—then came Billy Buell and the end of the feud. Doris May plays opposite Farnum in this picture.
